To SER

H V Nanjundyya Esqr M A M L

First Member of His Highness the Maharaja s State Council

(~~[illegible]~~)

The applicant~~s~~ begs to apply for the Librarian's post in the Oriental Library Mysore which, he hears, has become vacant ~~shortly~~ now and respectfully invites attention to h: qualification, such as they are, below mentioned -

(a) In 1889, he stood first in the first class for the State in the then called Mysore Local Examination and was awarded a gold ring by Government

(b) In 1897, he secured a first class pass in the Sanskrit branch of the B A , examination of the Madras University

(c) In the Vedanta Examination held in 1889 he was awarded the first prize

2 For about 12 years, the applicant was a student of the Bangalore Sanskrit College where he prosecuted his studies in the various branches of sanskrit literature such as language, Grammer, rhetoric, philosophy &c, and where he has served as a teacher for more than 12 years Besides his large acquaintance with sanskrit, he knows Kannada and Telugu intimately

He is the author of several original works such as a dramma, a lyrical poem, an ode, an essay, a biography and other miscellaneous works both in Sanskrit and Kannada languages

4 The total period of his service under Government is 14 years, of which, he worked for a few months in the office of the Inspector General of Education, for 5 years in the District Office, Bangalore, and for the ~~remaining~~ remaining period he has been a clerk in the General and Revenue/

Secretariat

Secretariat Now he is drawing virtually a pay of Rs 70/-

5 His officials work has been appreciated by several officers in different capacities under whom he happened to serve viz, Messrs, B K Venkatavarada Iyengar, K P Puttannah Chetty, H J Bhaba, M S Narayan Rao, H H Sparks H V Nanjundyya M Shama Rao, A Sreenivasacharlu, L Anantasawmi Rao, A Subramany Iyer, K S Chendrasekhara Iyer, C S Balasundaram Iyer, K Patthan, K Mylar Rao, B Ramaswamyya, &c, and by all the Registrars of the General and Revenue Secretariat

6 He was a candidate for the posts of Assistant Inspector of Sanskrit Schools in Mysore and the Head Master of the Sanskrit College, Bangalore, but he was not fortunate enough to secure either of these posts, though his claim and qualifications were duly recognized

He earnestly prays that he may be kindly recommended for the above mentioned post, the duties of which he believes himself qualified to discharge satisfactorily and that in consideration of his present pay, he may be started with the maximum pay of the said post or at least with some increments to his present pay
